

CALHOUN DECISION VICTORY FOR HENEY

Second Trial of San Francisco Magnate Will Be During City Campaign.

PROSECUTOR WILL RUN FOR OFFICE

"Graft" Enemy Expects to Be Elected District Attorney by "Good" Citizens.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 9.—The trial of Patrick Calhoun, president of the United Railways of San Francisco, on a charge of having bribed ex-Supervisor John Furey, to get his vote for an overhead trolley ordinance in 1906, will be on in full swing during the municipal elections next fall.

This is the result of the decision of Judge Lawlor, when he ruled yesterday that Calhoun must stand trial July 19.

A jury disagreed as to Calhoun's guilt, after a trial that lasted five months. The calling of the case again this summer is regarded as a political victory for the Heney forces, or the graft prosecution, which will now be enabled to go to the people with the campaign cry that the work of the prosecution has not, should not, be interrupted in the midst of Calhoun's trial. Heney will run for district attorney in San Francisco as an independent candidate.

Situation Involved.

The political situation in San Francisco, already much involved because of the reputation by a portion of the so-called reformers of the methods of former Mayor Phelan, that resulted from the exposure of a trick in the management of the Good Government League, "ill be at a white heat during the progress of the Calhoun trial, which is expected to last for several months. It is feared that trouble will result from the infusion of the graft prosecution into another municipal campaign.

Victory for Heney.

Heney won a complete victory in the decision of Judge Lawlor. Calhoun sought to have the trial postponed until after the election, and to have Heney ousted as counsel for the people on the allegation that the prosecutor is hounding Calhoun.

The court decided that Heney is competent to handle the prosecution and directed that the trial of the traction magnate proceed without delay.

HORNETS CHASE MAN.

BLOOMSBURG, Pa., July 9.—Picking cherries today in the top of a high tree, Solomon Steinhilber was attacked by hornets. With no time to climb down, he jumped through the tree, caught the bottom limb, broke his fall, and escaped with a few bruises.

TO IMPROVE ALMSHOUSE.

ALBANY, July 9.—Plans for improvements to the Westchester county almshouse at Eastview, at a cost of $60,000, were submitted for approval to the State board of charities. A commission representing the board of supervisors explained the plans in detail.

SLAPS A POLICEMAN, SUFFRAGETTE JAILED

Mrs. Pankhurst Is Up Before London Court.

LONDON, July 8.—Mrs. Pankhurst, leader of the British militant suffragettes, was today in the Bow street police court, sentenced to one month's imprisonment for slapping the face of a police inspector during the recent suffragette riots about the houses of parliament.

Almost simultaneously with the sentencing of Mrs. Pankhurst, constables arrested four women who have been maintaining a perpetual blockade about the house of Premier Asquith in an effort to prevent him with the suffragette petition for votes for women.

All fashionable London inclined to the suffragette movement was packed into the court when the trial of the 113 suffragettes arrested during the recent rioting, around the halls of parliament, was resumed.

The attorneys representing the prisoners protested that a law passed during the reign of Charles II, and never repealed, gave to all English subjects the right to present petitions of grievances or demands to the ministers of state. The militant suffragettes who deavored to present a petition, demanding the right to vote, to Premier Asquith, declared that, under this ancient statute, they were merely exercising their right of presenting a petition to the prime minister.

The suffragettes declare that as they had a perfect right to present this petition, the police had no right to stop and that the law officers were, therefore, responsible for the disorders which prevailed about parliament.

Mrs. Pankhurst warned the magistrates who are trying the cases that if the suffragettes guilty they would refuse to be imprisoned as common criminal prisoners, but would insist on being treated as political prisoners of state. If the court refused to recognize them as political prisoners, Mrs. Pankhurst declared, the women would enforce their contention by starving themselves to death in prison.

That the women are capable of carrying out their "hunger strike" in prison to a serious extent was recently proven by Miss Wallace-Dunlop, a suffragette, who was released from imprisonment long before her terms had expired, because she refused to take nourishment and the jail physician said she would die in a few days, if she went longer without food.

MAN-EATING LION PACK AHEAD OF ROOSEVELTS

Ferocious Beasts Terrorize Natives—Government Closes Highway Because Unable to Protect People. Nine Persons Killed.

NAIVASHA, British East Africa, July 9.—Latest reports from the Fort Hall district, into which the Roosevelt party will plunge in August after leaving Nairobi, indicate that the Presidential party will encounter some of the gravest dangers it has yet met in the African hunt.

An immense pack of man-eating lions, one of the largest reported by hunters in many years, has taken literal possession of the district, so terrorizing the natives and foreigners as practically to paralyze travel and industry.

Up-country runners and travelers on the Uganda railroad report that the lions are more savage and aggressive than they have been in many years. Scores of natives have been killed by the pack during the past week, the lions, which are of the heavily maned variety, making raids on the native villages, at night, and after slaying such natives as are unprotected, retreating to the brush.
